

Fort Kamehameha Society

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)

PORT KAMEHAMEHA, June 23.—Everyone at the post is awaiting orders anxiously, and the one topic of conversation there is: Who is to go; when and where? Social affairs have almost ceased, for with this unsettled feeling no one feels like entertaining on a large scale. A number of persons who expect to go have already started packing some of their belongings, which seems a very wise move.

Lieut. Charles M. Steese, who received cabled orders transferring him to the Ordnance Department and ordering him to Washington, D. C. this week received a second order canceling the first. This may mean that Lieut. and Mrs. Steese will remain at Kamehameha for some time longer, which everyone on the post was pleased to hear.

With the formation of two new companies at Kamehameha many changes are sure to occur. These new companies, the Headquarters Company and the Sixth Company, which will go into effect on July 1st, will raise the number from five to seven companies at Fort Kamehameha, and with the band we will have eight. Fort Ruger also gains one company, the Fourth. There will be some shifting of places, in order to provide officers for these new companies. Capt. John C. Ohnstad will be in command of the Headquarters Company, and Capt. Otto Schrader of the Sixth.

Capt. John F. Curry this week received word that he has been promoted to the grade of Major in the Aviation Corps, and has been receiving the congratulations of his many friends. Much to everyone's regret, however, Major Curry has been ordered to the mainland to report for duty at once, and in all probability will leave next week. Major Curry has been at Kamehameha for only a few months, but in that time has made many friends on the post and in Honolulu who heard of his new orders with much regret.

Capt. and Mrs. Thomas Donaldson Sloan and their children are leaving the post next week also. They will go on the Matsuyama liner and then to New York, where Mrs. Sloan and the children will visit relatives for some time. Capt. Sloan has secured a month's leave of absence and will accompany them to New York. Capt. and Mrs. Sloan have been universally liked at the post, and will be greatly missed.

Mrs. George A. Blackmore arrived at the post on Monday to make a visit with her son, Lieut. Philip G. Blackmore.

Mrs. Walter Reesman was the guest of Miss Dorothy Harker on Wednesday afternoon at a tea given in honor of Miss Lloyd Brett of Schofield Barracks. Miss Brett visited at Fort Kamehameha for several days with Capt. and Mrs. Jerome Pillow when they were stationed here.

Little Miss Ruth Giffin celebrated her third birthday on Monday by inviting all the children on the post to spend the afternoon with her. Games, and a peanut hunt kept the guests amused until time for refreshments. The children were seated in the dining room at a table prettily decorated with pink carnations and lighted by pink candles. The candles were also in the same color. A large birthday cake was a feature of the entertainment, having on it lovely pink flowers and tiny candles.

At the conclusion of the party the little guests had their picture taken, which will make a pleasant souvenir of a happy day.

Those enjoying the birthday party were the Misses Bessie Ohnstad, Julia Reeder, Ethel Andrus, Helen Sloan, Miriam Sloan, Betty Garcia, and Cornelia Hicks, and Masters Donaldson Sloan, Bobbie Sloan, Bobbie Martin, Jimmie Schrader, Robert Burdick, George Ruhlen, "Buddie" Schrader, and Fritz Reeder.

Capt. and Mrs. Otto Schrader had as their guests on Sunday for a mid-day dinner Lieut. and Mrs. Edward C. Wallington of Fort DeRussy.

Capt. and Mrs. Frederick Martin, Capt. John F. Curry and Capt. John B. Brooks motored to Fort DeRussy on Wednesday and were the guests of Capt. and Mrs. Louis D. Pepin for an afternoon swim and tea.

Lieut. and Mrs. Charles M. Steese had as their guest for Sunday noon dinner and Sunday supper, Capt. Elmer F. Rice of Fort Shafter.

Lieut. and Mrs. Harold DeF. Burdick entertained informally at cards on Monday evening with Mrs. Otto Schrader, Mrs. Malcolm P. Andrus, and Lieut. and Mrs. Stewart S. Giffin as their guests.

Miss Helen Ohnstad was the overnight guest of Col. and Mrs. James McRae and Miss Dorothy McRae in Honolulu on Friday.

Among the visitors on the post last Sunday were Major Horace Bloombergh, Major Benjamin Edger, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. V. Foster of Honolulu, Capt. William E. Hunt and Capt. Elmer F. Rice of Fort Shafter, Major Hugh Wise of Schofield Barracks, Lieut. and Mrs. Edward C. Wallington of Fort DeRussy.

Miss Eleanor Gartley of Honolulu was the guest of Mrs. J. H. Lee Holcombe last Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Walter Reesman was a guest of Mrs. Rogers and Mrs. Lionel E. Hooper of Honolulu at a bridge afternoon on Tuesday at the Country Club given for Mrs. James Ogg.

Lieut. and Mrs. Cuthbert P. Stearns have come from Schofield Barracks and will live in the quarters formerly occupied by Capt. and Mrs. Ruhlen. Lieut. Stearns will be stationed at Fort Kamehameha temporarily and will assist Capt. Barney in the command of the cavalry troops here.

Capt. and Mrs. George Ruhlen and George, Junior, are the guests of Lieut. and Mrs. Frank Drake at Fort Ruger for all day Saturday.

Miss Vivian Buckland of Honolulu was the guest of Doctor and Mrs. Walter Reesman for luncheon last Sunday.

Dr. Thomas W. Huntington of San Francisco was elected president of the American Surgical Association at the closing session of its annual convention in Boston.

Mrs. Samuel I. Johnson, hostess at the largest dinner of the week, in honor of the commanding officer and officers of the Japanese warship Asama.

Fort Ruger and Fort De Russy Social Notes

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)

PORT RUGER, June 23.—Last Saturday Lieut. Cris Burlingame and Lieut. Joseph Haw of Fort DeRussy gave their first dinner party at their quarters. They have established a bachelor's mess, and are planning many informal gatherings.

On Saturday evening their dinner guests were Capt. and Mrs. Louis D. Pepin of De Russy and Miss Dorothy McRae and Miss Katherine Raymond of Honolulu.

Dancing at the Young Hotel Roof Garden was the evening's enjoyment.

Lieut. and Mrs. Frank Drake of Fort Ruger were the dinner guests of Lieut. and Mrs. Samuel J. Heidner of Fort Shafter last Friday, later attending the moving picture show.

Mrs. Robert Clark of Fort Ruger has been very ill with a severe attack of tonsillitis, but is reported to be recovering nicely.

Parade was held at Fort Ruger on Thursday afternoon. Quite a number were present to witness the parade. The Fort Kamehameha band came down for the event.

On Wednesday Lieut. and Mrs. Frank Drake were the luncheon guests of Lieut. and Mrs. Samuel J. Heidner and Mrs. Helen MacAdams of Fort Shafter. In the afternoon the party motored to Fort De Russy and enjoyed a swim.

Capt. and Mrs. George Ruhlen of Fort Kamehameha are spending the day at Fort Ruger as the guests of Lieut. and Mrs. Frank Drake.

On Saturday Col. and Mrs. Andrew Hero of Fort Ruger had as their dinner guests Capt. and Mrs. Lloyd B. Magruder.

Lieut. Joseph Haw and Lieut. Cris Burlingame of Fort De Russy entertained at another of their jolly informal dinners on Wednesday evening at the bachelor quarters. Covers were placed for Lieut. and Mrs. Manning M. Kimmel, Lieut. and Mrs. Edward C. Wallington, Lieut. Burlingame and Lieut. Haw.

MRS. CHARLES R. FRAZIER A. LUNCHEON HOSTESS
Mrs. Charles R. Frazier entertained a half dozen guests at luncheon on Friday. Knitting and sewing made a pleasantly busy afternoon.

MR. AND MRS. PERCY MORSE'S DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. C. Percy Morse entertained on Tuesday evening at the Moana Hotel with a dinner party. Mrs. Morse and her sons leave for the mainland on Wednesday of next week.

MCKINLEY GRADUATES AT DINNER

The graduates of McKinley High school enjoyed a dinner at the Moana hotel. About sixty guests were in attendance.

Cool satisfaction in every bubble.

PERFORMANCE OF THE BLUEBIRD BY SCHOOL CHILDREN

For several years the Valley School has been giving some interesting performances for its closing exercises, and this year Maeterlinck's "Bluebird" was chosen for the special program. The play was cleverly adapted from the original text by Miss Louise Lucas, principal, to fit the special needs and ages of her scholars. Most of the children of this school are quite young and it was surprising to see how well each little tot fitted its special character. Miss Lucas showed fine judgment in her selections and unusual skill in training her small actors to such a difficult play.

This little play was given at the Lanai Theater on Friday morning and the smart set turned out in force to see their small relatives perform.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Love's children both displayed unusual talent and carried two difficult roles. The little boy, Billy, was Tyltyl and little Mary Louise was Tyllette, the cab.

The program was too long to make special mention of each, but all acted their parts nicely and their costumes were most effective.

It is a pity the Lanai Theater allowed but a limited number, as the performance was most quaint and interesting.

The following was the program:

Act I
The Wood-cutter's Cottage
Act II
Hall in Fairy's Palace
Act III
Scene I—Land of Memory
Scene II—Palace of Night
Act IV
Kingdom of the Future
